

Admiral Group recognised as one of the World's Best Workplaces

16 November 2023 12:00 PM GMT

International financial services provider Admiral Group has been named as one of the World's Best Workplaces™ in a list published by Great Place To Work®.

The Group has offices in Canada, France, Gibraltar, India, Italy, Spain, the UK, and the USA and was recognised for creating exceptional employee experiences across all its sites. Admiral Group stood out for fostering a flexible and inclusive workplace where all colleagues are treated equally and fairly with a strong focus on employees' health and wellbeing.

Milena Mondini, CEO of Admiral Group, said: "From Cardiff to Halifax, our colleagues are committed to creating an inclusive environment as we believe that people that like what they do, do it better. I'm so proud to see the Group recognised as one of the World's Best Workplaces. It's an incredible achievement. I'm always so impressed by our colleagues' dedication to each other and our customers. They make me so proud to be a part of the Admiral Family."

The Group celebrated its 30th birthday this year. Since its launch in 1993, the business has focused on providing a supportive workplace culture for colleagues in recognition of their belief that people who like what they do, do it better and deliver better outcomes for customers.

The Great Place to Work list is based on colleague surveys that are designed to gain insight into how people feel about their employer and their work environment, with a focus on respect, recognition, transparency, and camaraderie.

ENDS

Notes to Editor

Admiral Group plc is an FTSE100 global financial services company offering motor, household, travel and pet insurance as well as personal lending products. Established in 1993 in the UK, the Group now has offices in Canada, France, Gibraltar, India, Italy, Spain, and the U.S and employs over 11,000 colleagues.